

Rigid Heddle Loom Study Group 2
Meeting Notes August 1, 2024
Sister's Library Sisters, Oregon 10:00 Am - Noon

Study Program: Textbook "Inventive Weaving on a Little Loom" p. 129-133 Designing Plaids

Membership: 7 active members plus 2 who follow the group's progress but cannot attend meetings on weekdays.

MEETING:

3 members attended the meeting: Athena Pogue, Joan Kloster and Robin Chinburg
Coordinator: Sharyl McCulloch

GROUP BUSINESS:

Agenda: Because of the small group in attendance, it was decided to forego the study program and discuss projects and experiences since the last meeting instead.

SHARING:

Athena shared her excitement about a new pin loom by Turtle

Joan shared her lovely woven tea towels and adorable knitted socks

Robin shared her experience warping her loom for the first time alone

Sharyl shared her beautiful shawl with pick up stitches

DISCUSSION AND IDEAS:

- Pick up stitches

- Varident heddles

- Inclusions using novelty yarns and rovings

- Swifts for easy winding

- Warping boards vs. Peg method

- Favorite yarns for various projects

Sharyl announced the agenda for the next meeting will include studying pgs. 129-133 "Designing Plaids" from our textbook

NEXT MEETING: Abby's Pizza in Redmond. September 5, 2024, 10:00 - noon

- Joan will transition into the role of Coordinator in October

- Tentatively, Karen will fill the role of Facilitator in September

Meeting was adjourned.
